Calendar selection—2009

A pleasant May evening greeted a larger than usual meeting, augmented in part by the Greenville Center contingent. Present this evening were: Larry & Dot Hesel, Harriett Rasmussen, Phyllis Beechert, Allan and Mary Shaw, Bob and Marie Shaw, Mimi Weeks, Christine Mickelsen, Walter Ingalls, Stephanie Ingalls, Dot Blenis, Kathie Williams, Ron Golden, Joe Trupiano, and Don Teator. Introductions were done for the sake of the newcomers.

Preceding the evening's main topic, a few short topics arose. Bob Shaw had brought in the 1918 and 1921 tax assessment roll. Some of you remember these booklets that listed the assessments of all taxpayers in the Town of Greenville. This was a tradition until 1950, a tradition that understandably died out but one that was useful in giving interesting information about the town.

Joe Trupiano related his search for information and for a photo of his house in Norton Hill (on top of the first rise as one leaves Norton Hill for Greenville, same side as the church).

The major part of the evening was the selection of photos for the 2009 calendar, referred to in the last issue. Don brought to the table all the photos displayed during the winter shows, and we narrowed a wish list to about twenty, before narrowing down to about fifteen. Those present thought that Don should take over from there. And, so it will be.

Notes:

—The next meeting will be a share session – June 9th.

—June 7 is Greenville Day, sponsored by Community Partners. C.P. is a non-profit group committed to the protection, preservation and development of natural and historic resources of the Greenville area. I feel strongly enough about the worth of C.P. that I would encourage you to consider joining it. Dues are $15, made out to Community Partners, and sent to Community Partners, PO Box 252, Greenville, NY 12083.

—Enclosed is my database listing all the photos ever used in the fifteen years of calendars. (I wish I had a small photo of each but that's beyond my technology, for now.)

Take care,
